Individuality and realization of self are two of the most important and elusive qualities of a human being in this fast-moving, confusing world.

Fr. Terence Koch, S.J., truly possesses these treasures. Through his constant expression of self, he is a source of courage for all of us to seek our own. So to you, Fr. Koch, we dedicate El Camino 1974 . . .

Every man bears the whole stamp of the human condition.

CAM coordinators (left to right): Chris McCarthy, Greg Vaughn, Tom Trujillo, Steve Newell, Fr. James Rude, Will Mora, Terry Baxter, Bill Fitzgerald, Tony Otero; (bottom row): Mark Bianchetti, Mr. John Hokoyama, Mike Podegracz.

CAM, Christian Action Movement, is one of the few activities open to every student and teacher of the Loyola community. The goal is finding Christ in others by imitating Him. Enthusiasm is both a reason and a by-product, student involvement is essential. Organized by Father James Rude, S.J., Mr. John Hokoyama, and several senior coordinators, CAM had one of the finest years in its seven year history during '73-'74. The number and size of activities of the organization increases each year, including this year: the tremendously successful Bike-a-Thon, which gained monetary support for CAM's other operations; visiting newly-released prisoners in the Jail Run; giving food and comfort to the less fortunate at the Soup Kitchen; visiting the old and ill at St. John of God Hospital; tutoring at nearby schools; and other annual events, such as collecting food at Christmas time for the poor.

CAM is not an "it"—CAM is Human. CAM is Action. CAM is Human Action.

Through CAM Loyola is truly fulfilling Christ's words: "Then the king will say to those on his right hand, 'Come, you whom my Father has blessed, take for your heritage the kingdom prepared for you since the foundation of the world. For I was hungry and you gave Me food; I was thirsty and you gave Me drink; I was a stranger and you made Me welcome; naked and you clothed Me; sick and you visited Me; in prison and you came to see Me.' " (Matthew 6:34-37).

Fr. Rude and Mr. Hokoyama are excited and thankful for what has been done and are more excited and hopeful for what will be done in future years, for there is no end to what can be done.

In Memoriam
Dominic Alexis Gordon
October 8, 1956 - August 13, 1973

A brother-so bold, black and beautiful
Touched our lives for a moment
Amidst our tears and sighs
Never do we pause to realize — and recognize
Our selfish thoughts and dreams

A brother-whose subtle smile revealed the irony
He lived
So young and unalone, yet manly and seemingly
So grown
-As if to be adored

A brother — whom I loved; for I had not known
The joy of mine own
We try to smile, but, O great God, our cries
To thee from tortured souls arise
Only to be heard by our Creator

A brother — whose debt we pay to human guile
With torn and bleeding hearts we smile-
And mouth myriad subtleties
Why should we all be otherwise
In counting all our dreams and sighs

-No, let him see us, as he did while he shared his life with us

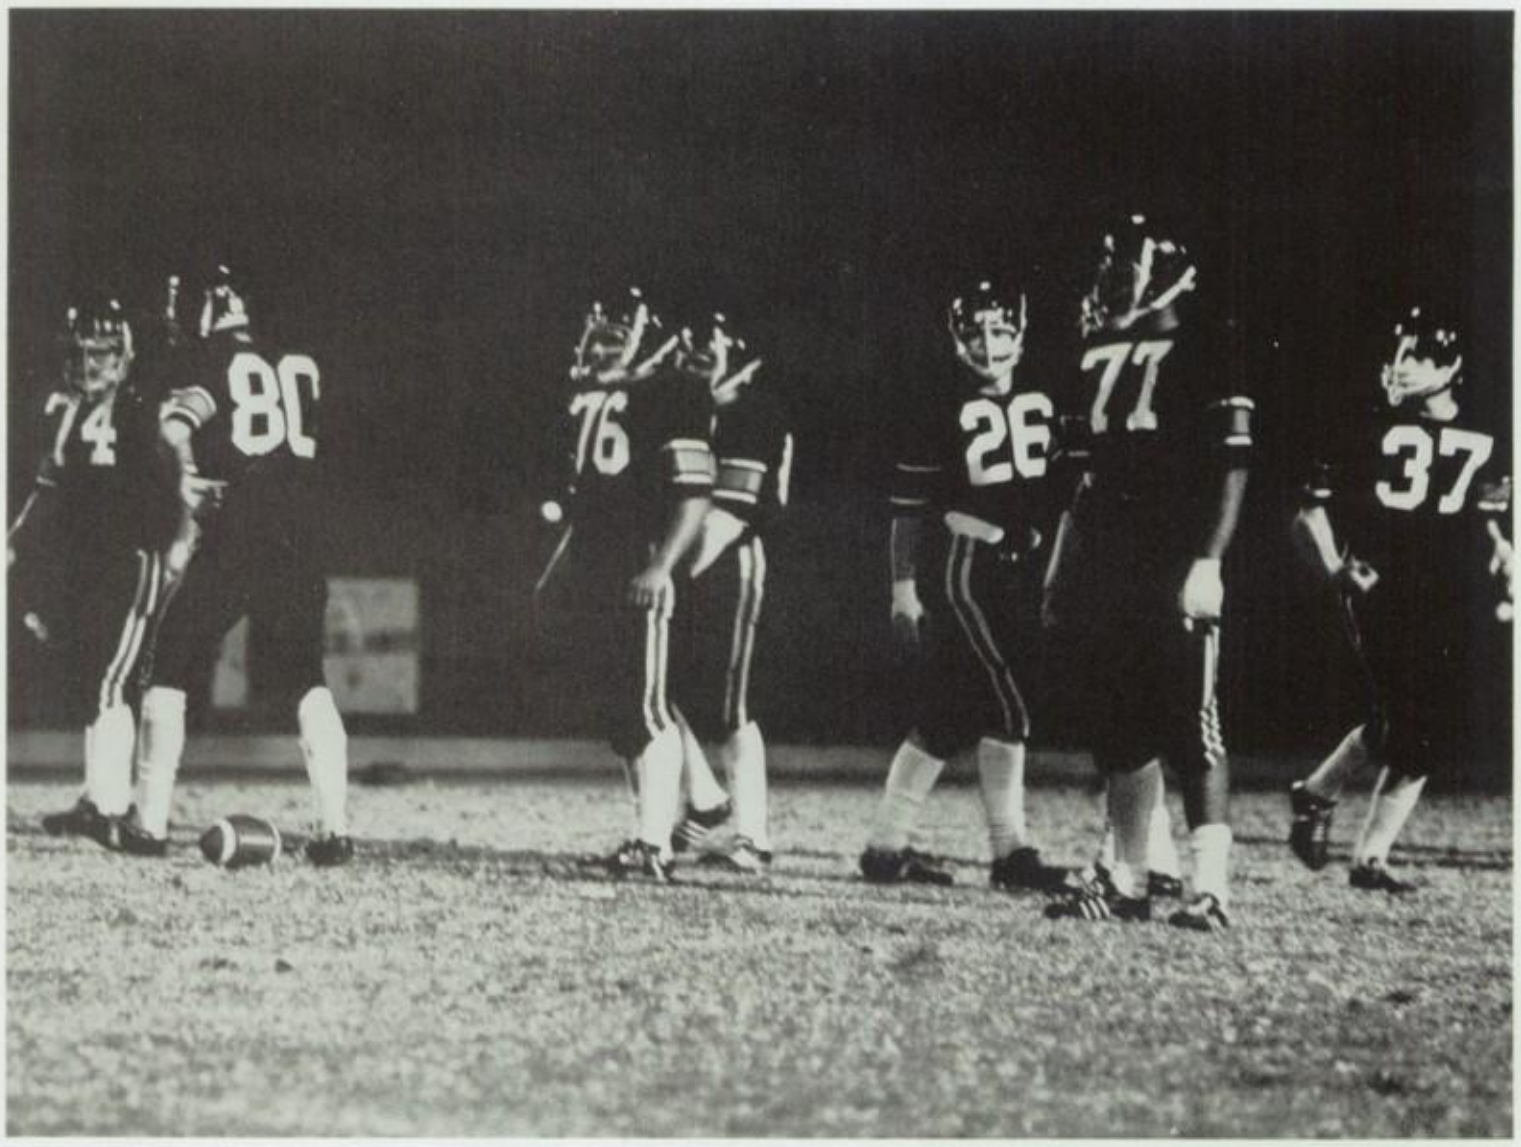
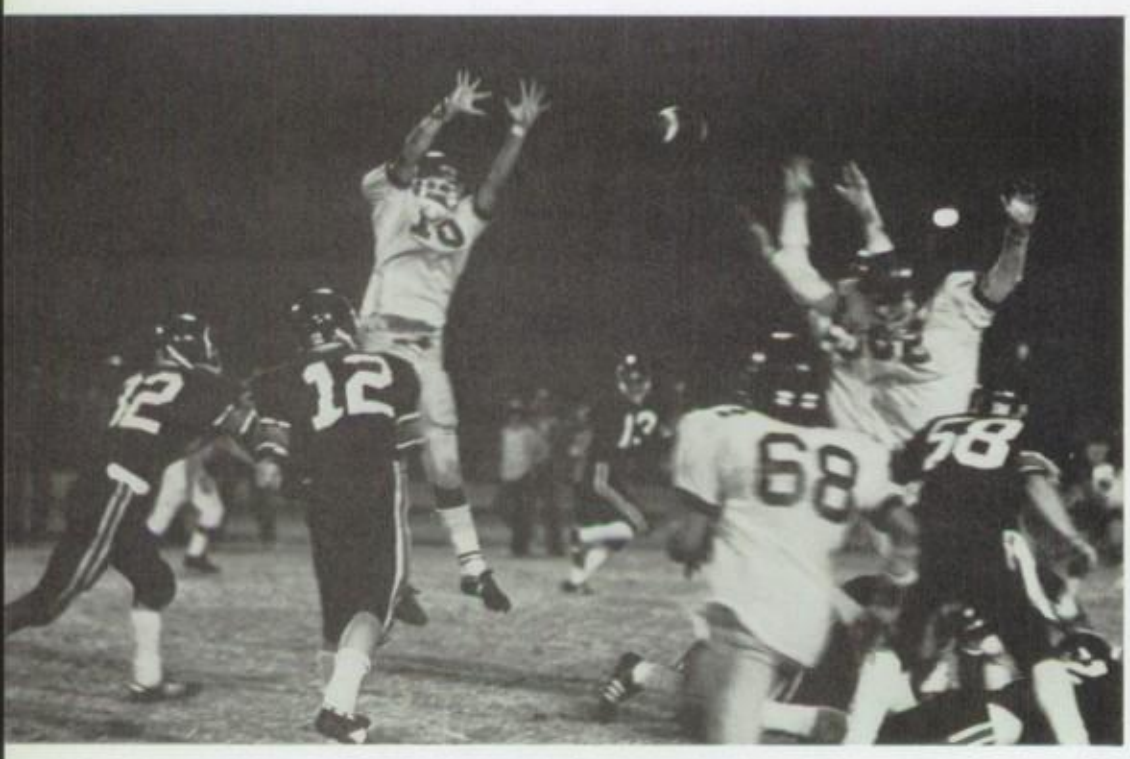
ATHLETICS



VARSITY FOOTBALL



When March rolled around, four new coaches brought a new attitude of discipline and desire to Loyola football that the Cubs hadn't been accustomed to during recent years.

Loyola football of 1973 was a year of inexperience due to youth and few returning lettermen. It was a year of winning some but losing more. This was a year when the Cubs experienced what it takes to be a "winner" after a long drought.

It started in March with lifting weights and conditioning which continued through spring training and into the long summer months. It passed through the four-a-day practices of camp week and into the long awaited season.

To many it was a disappointment, but to future teams it was the conquest of a mental attitude that wasn't realized till the last game. In the long run, the youth should be an investment for years to come. An investment that will bring the Cubs back on the path to C.I.F. prominence.

The most important thing that a freshman team should do is to learn the system that they will use for the next three years. In his last year coaching here at Loyola, Head Frosh Coach Eddie Toler had the job of teaching the fourth system he has used in as many years to a team that lacked both size and speed. Some of the things that they did not lack (which Coach Toler's teams never do) were the determination and the willingness to win.

CROSS COUNTRY

Wandering into a small valley this year from previous peak seasons, the Cross Country team found its win streak cut short by the Celts of Crespi. In the end, however, the strong coaching of Mr. Charles Valenti paid off and the teams finished second in the C.I.F. prelims.

SOCCER

The Cub kickers captured the league crown with a league record of 11-3. The defense allowed the fewest number of goals in the league while the offense scored more than in any previous season.

Leading the team were seniors Mike Real, John Pineda, and Dave Montoya. They were backed up by great play from Gus Frousakis, Kieran Nolan, Larry Rodriguez, Witold Dudzinski, Bobby Campos, Fernando Ruiz, Cesar Marenco, Rick Alvarez, Rick Chavez and Peter Pineda.

With only four seniors from the varsity graduating, the team has hopes of repeating this year's performance.

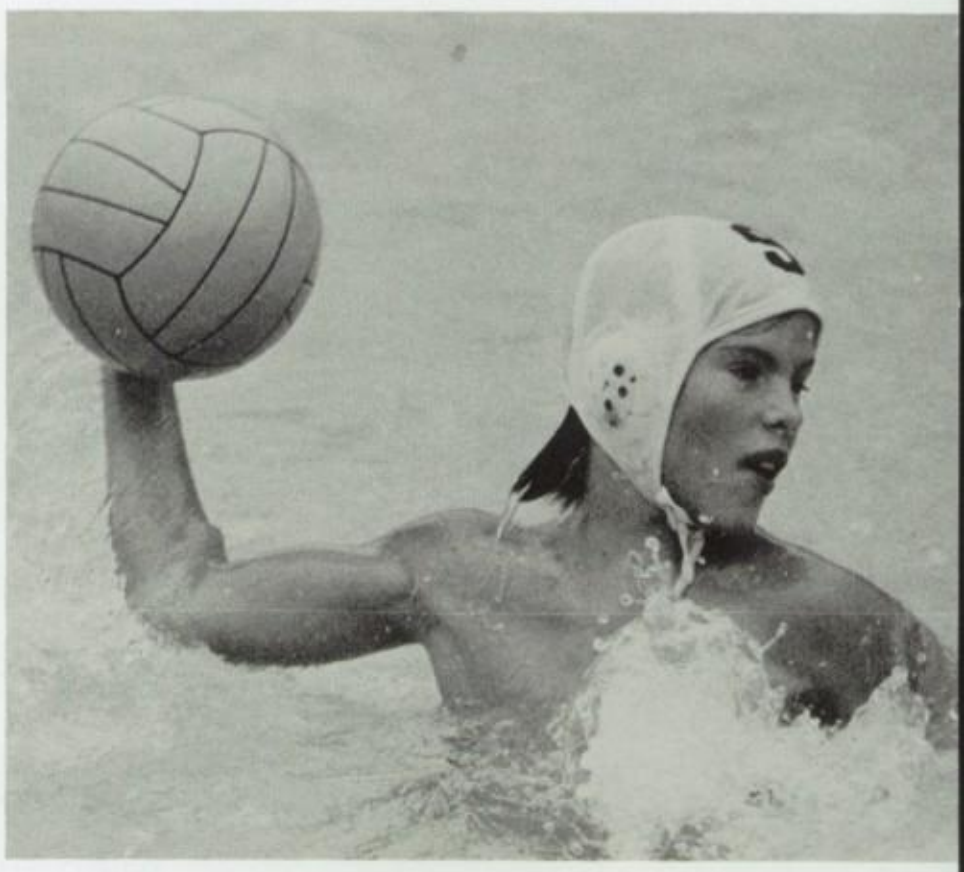
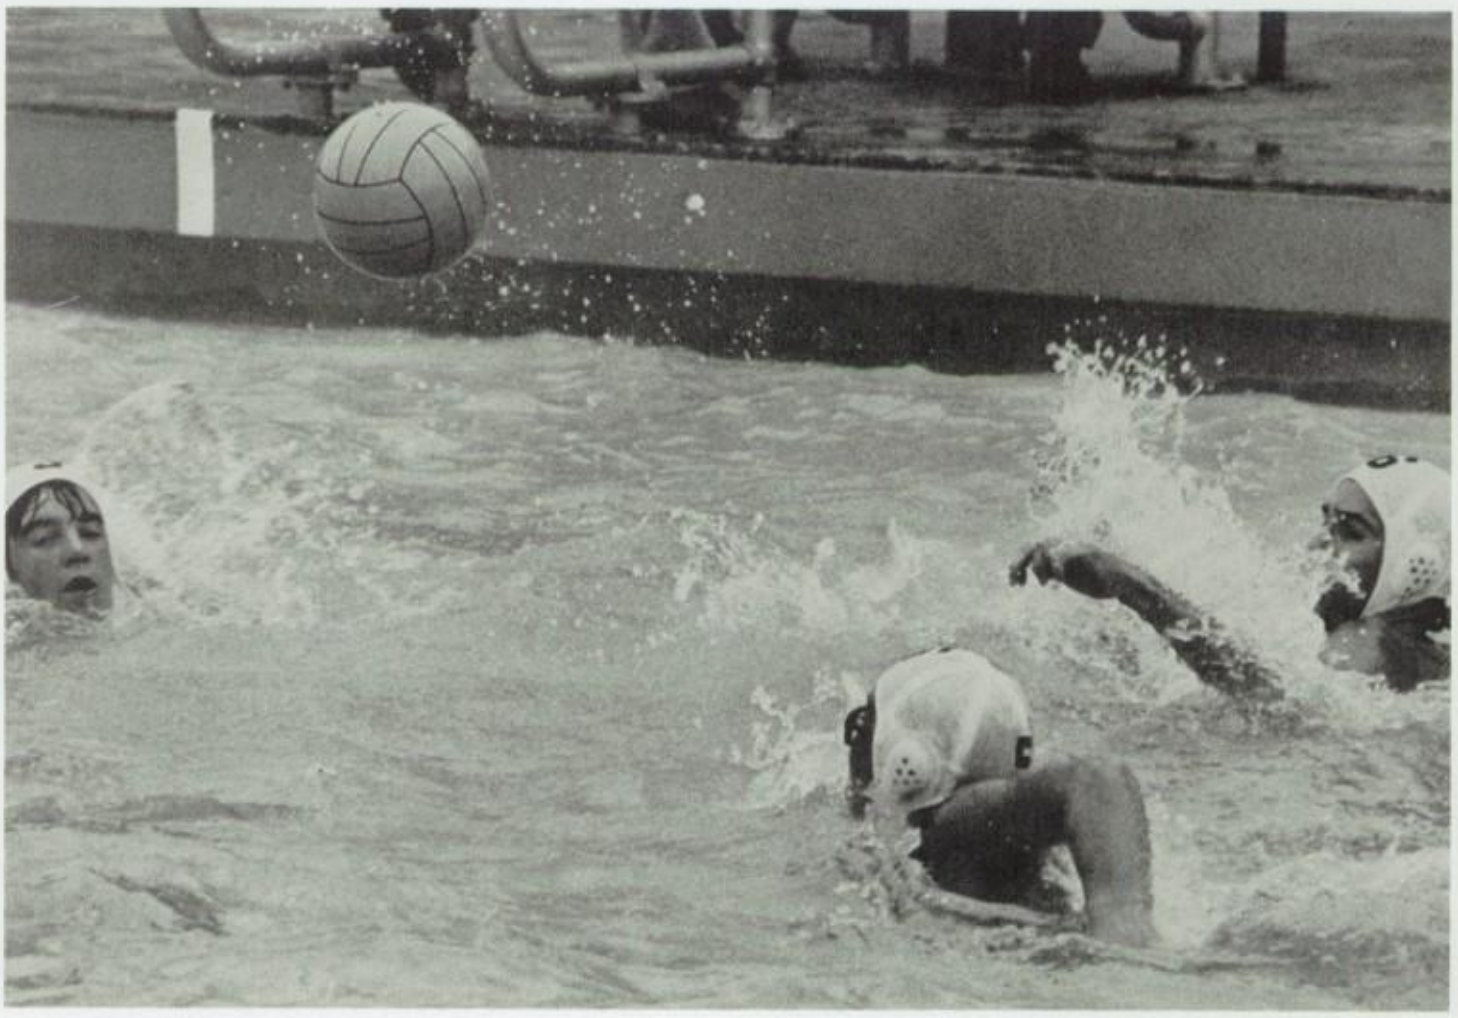
WATER POLO





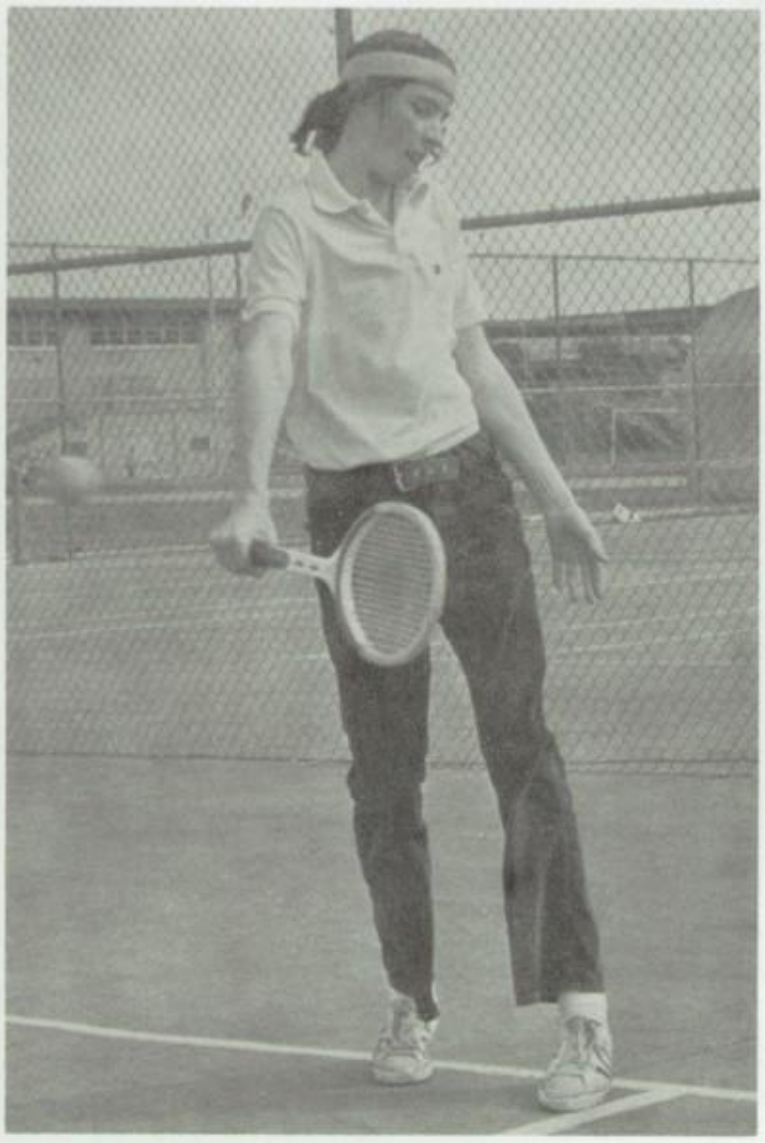
The newest addition to Loyola's sports scene, the water polo team, coached by Mr. John McConville, S.J., finished its first season on an expectant note looking forward to next year's schedule.

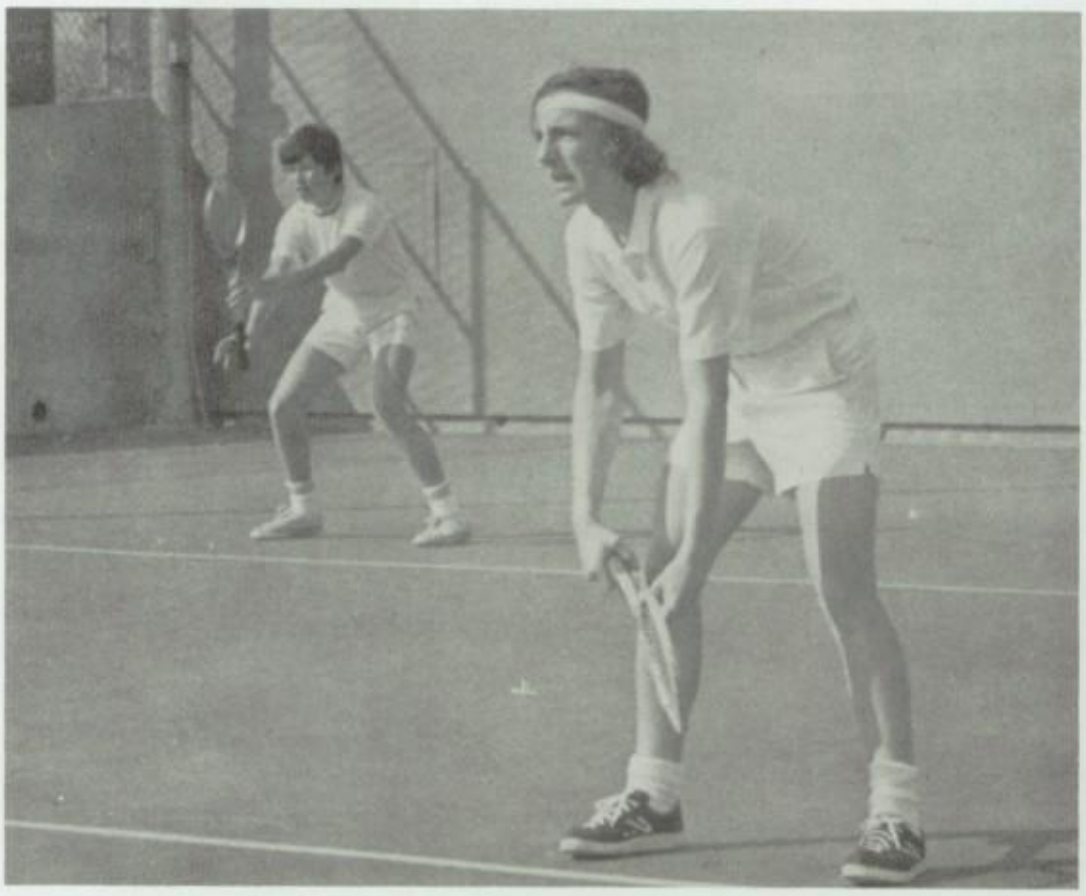
The year's only win was logged against Morningside, despite many close games. The season was successful in the light that success should not be measured in wins and losses but rather in emotional and physical advances.

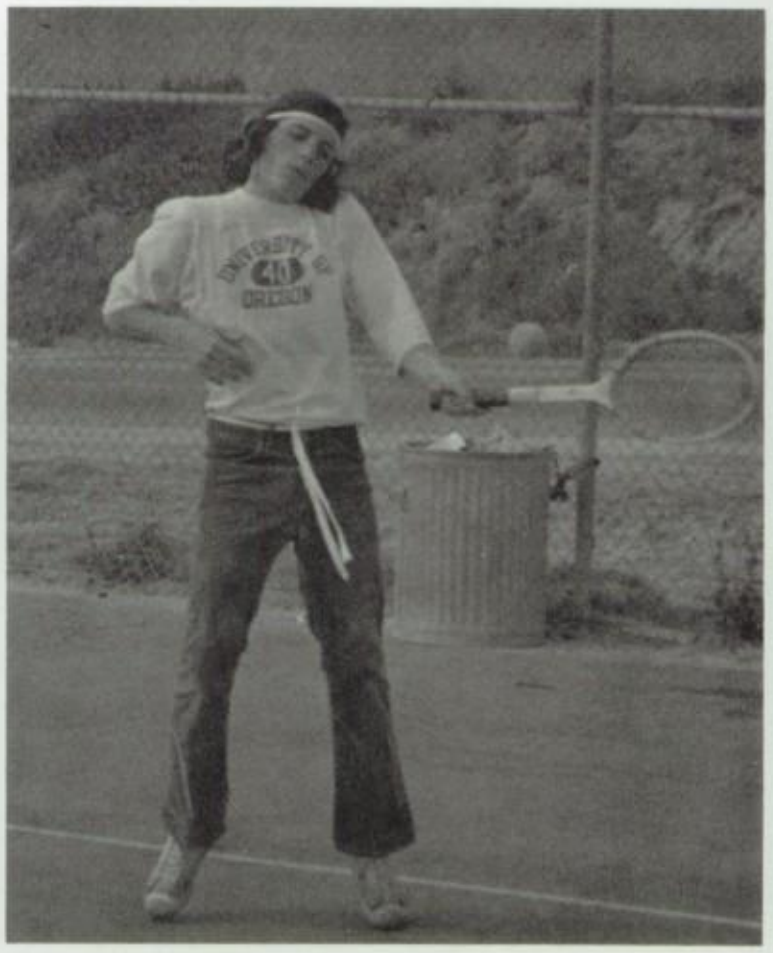
This year's schedule included: Morningside, Servite, Notre Dame, Bishop Montgomery, St. Monica's, and Lynwood.

The team was led by captain and leading scorer Steve Henneberry, a junior, and co-captain Dave Watson. The other team members were Mark Burger, Greg Finn, Brian Fitzgerald, Paul Irvin, Linus Keating, Ed Kurata, David Lynch, Jerry Nagle, Mike Neeno, Duane Nishikua, Peter Thomas, Paul Medina, and Chris Horne.

TENNIS







The Varsity tennis team ; Peter Rudy, Peter Gerlach, Pat Harrington, Craig Schoenbaum, Kevin Rudy, Roland Hernandez, Dave Smith, Andy William.

Since its foundation, the Pep Club has enjoyed the increasingly difficult responsibility of maintaining the "spirit" here at Loyola. This year the job proved to be more complex than ever before, but once again this group of rambunctious students has perservered. Presidents Dan Lemos and George Montgomery, with some great help from Head Cheerleader Greg Baur and the students at large, directed the rallies and sign painting with deft skill and unique style. Greg managed to keep the crowd moving throughout the victories and losses of the various seasons, and moderator Mr. W. Turbay even appeared once in a while to keep the kids under control.

RETREATS

The Jesuit Novitiate at Montecito

Fr. William Muller S.J.

Fr. Ed Reese S.J.

In this fast paced society in which we live one rarely has the opportunity to slow down, step back and take a look at oneself and to reflect upon his role in this world. This is the purpose of the spiritual retreat. Through the guidance of Fr. Ed Reese S.J. and Fr. William Muller S.J. many Loyola students were fortunate to have had this experience.

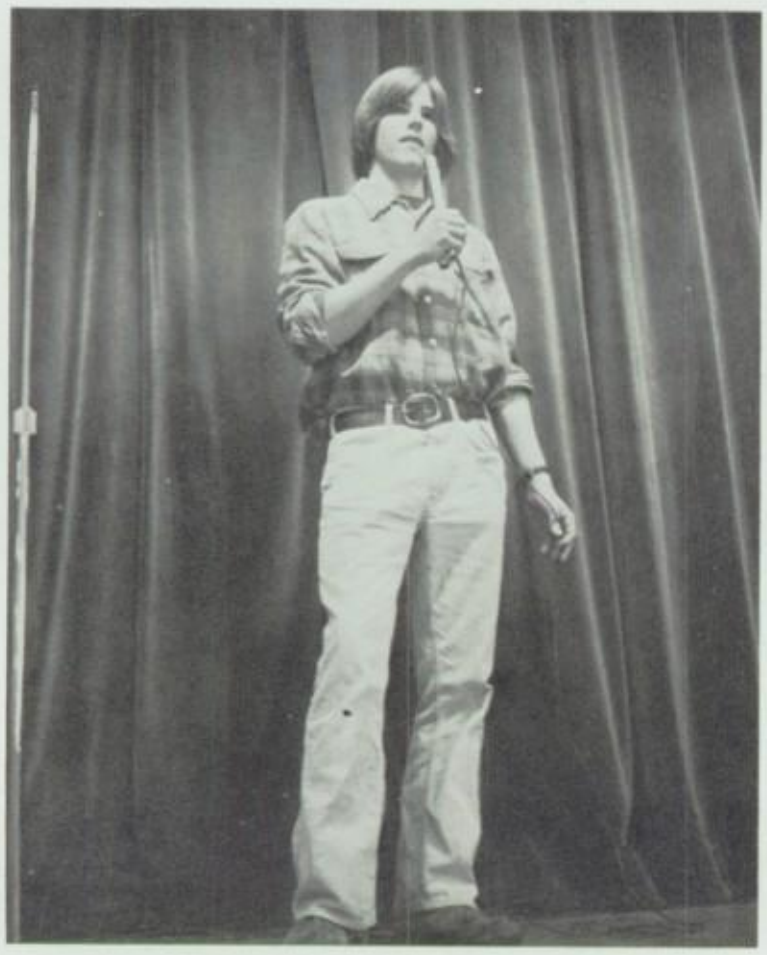
DANCE COMMITTEE



Mike McKenna

This year's Dance Committee managed the five dances and concerts sponsored by Loyola. Once again they aimed for a mix of formal dances, mixers, sock-hops, and concerts. The overall organization was handled by Social Co-ordinator Mike McKenna. The highlight of the season was Ballin' Jack. A bit of nostalgia was provided by the sophomore class promoted sock-hop after the Cantwell basketball game.

Loyola's first dramatic production for the 1973-74 academic year, Kaufman and Hart's You Can't Take It With You, marked a new area of success for the Drama department. Director Fr. William Muller, S.J., employed a new stage concept, the three-quarter stage. Xavier Center's conventional stage became a balcony in what Fr. Muller christened the Marks Theatre, with a seating capacity of 144 people.

This intimate setting put the audience right into the living room of Martin Vanderhof (Grandpa) where just about anything happens. Paul Sycamore and Mr. De Pinna set off fireworks; Essie dances ballet while her husband Ed Carmichael alternates between playing his xylophone and printing anything on a hand press right in the living room. Add to this a maid who has corns and a mother who out of her love and devotion manages to say the wrong thing at the wrong time. Outsiders either make or meet chaos.

But happiness and fun prevailed.

LOYALIST

After a rather hectic start, this year's LOYALIST, under the able direction of Moderator Thomas C. Weston, S. J., Editor-in-Chief Dave Lemos, Managing Editor Bill Kearin, and a host of others, became more than just a High School paper. The addition of the new Performance page, and the use of Editorials that concerned more than the immediate school, served to motivate the students' interest in the activities of the surrounding communities, and the nation as a whole. Complementing the aforementioned accomplishment with a better than average job of keeping the school informed of all of its activities, the staff succeeded in making this a good year for the monthly publication.

River of life
Rain was your birth
Gathered deep
Beneath the earth.
Search and seep,
Hollow stone
Issue and flow
Virgin stream
Meander free
It's a long way to the sea.
